MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration.

FROM:

Deputy Chief, DCI History Staff

SUBJECT: Histories on Laos and Southeast Asia
for use by House Select Intelligence Committee

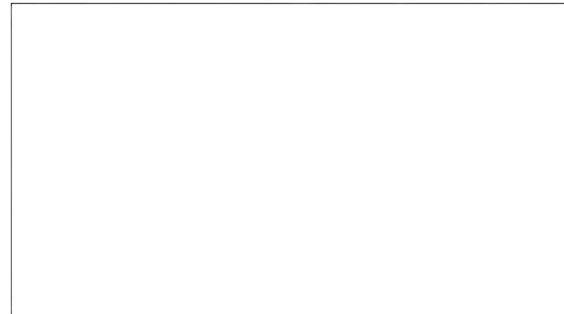

REFERENCE: Your telecon with J. Kenneth McDonald,
Chief, DCI History Staff

1. The History Staff has no general histories of Agency activities in Laos or Southeast Asia.

2. The previous History Program produced a number of monographs covering individual components involved in or specific operations related to CIA actions in the areas in question. These are listed in an attachment, together with a brief description. If you feel that any of these histories meet the needs of the House Select Committee on Intelligence, access approval should be secured from the originating directorate, as indicated.

3. Of the histories listed, No. 026, Vietnam and the Office of National Estimates, 1951-1946 (TS) and No. 002, CIA-MEO Activities, 1960-64 provide the best accounts of specific aspects of CIA's role in Southeast Asia.
